Concept Schools' 1st Annual Parents' Writing Contest Winners Announced

November 14, 2011- Concept Schools is proud to announce the top five winners in our 1st Annual Parents' Writing Contest. Thank you to all participants for sharing your heartfelt messages; we truly value the time, effort and passion you put into each essay.

Concept Schools' committee of judges had a difficult time choosing only five winners out of 312 entries because every essay was filled with such unique personal messages. Please know that your voices were heard and valued; we look forward to your active participation in other school events.

Congratulations to the top five winners who will receive the following awards:

1st place $300: Jerre Parsons, Gateway Science Academy

2nd place $250: Kea Jenkins, Indiana Math and Science Academy- North

3rd place $200: Bobbie J. Daugherty, Noble Academy Columbus

4th place $150: Jennifer Smith, Horizon Science Academy Lorain

5th place $100: David Zietlow, Quest Charter Academy

The winning participants' corresponding school will receive the award by Monday, November 21. More information here about how and when they will receive their awards.
